

BUSINESS CONTINUITY

Even in today's best managed organisations major IT failure can occur. Thankfully, most problems are of a technical nature and not caused by life threatening natural disasters or acts of terrorism. However, whatever the cause, an organisation's primary requirement is to be up and running again as soon as possible.

As a leading provider of IT services for over thirty years Kalamazoo - Reynolds know the importance of business continuity. The unparalleled level of service to customers across the UK is acknowledged throughout the industry.

As a further enhancement to our portfolio, Kalamazoo - Reynolds is now offering a business continuity service providing a seamless suite of solutions designed to return your business to normality as rapidly as possible following a major breakdown.

Providing a service to suit you

Experience and sheer technical knowledge form the foundation of our business. We believe the way in which each customer is individually treated really makes the difference. We also firmly believe that no two organisations are alike so flexibility is the keyword within our organisation. We will do everything possible to tailor a business continuity solution to suit your particular needs.

We provide business continuity solutions on all software platforms and are specialists in companies who operate from several sites. Our customers are free to call any time, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, simply to check the response.

You may or may not have experienced a disaster recovery situation, however, it is reassuring to know that the people who are best equipped to help are just a call away.

If you are considering 24/7 disaster recovery for your business call Kalamazoo - Reynolds' today.

Customer satisfaction is key to everything we do
